

1st Grade Weekly Update

1/16 - 1/20

Midterms for Trimester 2 are next week.

Please review the following skills with your child:

- skip counting, greater than and less than, numbers that are 1 more, 1 less, 10 more, 10 less, number patterns
- main idea, pronouns, sequencing, adding -ed and -ing to words, r controlled vowels (ur, er, ir, ar, or), words with -le, writing a riddle

Upcoming Events

1/24 - Board Meeting

1/26 - Family Unity Night; Get Fit!

1/27 - NO SCHOOL- Staff Professional Development

1/23 - 1/26 - Midterms

Students of the Day!

- Jahniya Knox
- Nishiya Weeks
- Sianni Johnson-Carodine
- Patience Smallwood
- Ayanna Moses

- The healthy snacks the children enjoyed this week were tangerines, carrots and dip, and bananas. Yum!
- We began our Author Study on Donald Crews. If you have a book written by him, please bring it in on Wednesday to share with the class.
- This week we learned about maps! Please bring in a map by Thursday, January 26th for an in class project. Examples are a map of the zoo, mall, city, amusement park, state, museum, grocery store, etc.
- Don't forget to check out our blogs and comment. Thank you to the parents who have commented so far! We will begin blogging with other classes shortly.

---<http://kidblog.org/MissMondelblattsClass/>

---<http://kidblog.org/MsFreemansClass/>